

DECOTIIS, FITZPATRICK & COLE, LLP

ENERGY

FOR ENTITIES OPERATING IN THE ENERGY INDUSTRY, DECOTIIS PROVIDES THE BREADTH OF EXPERIENCE AND THE UNIQUE INSIGHTS THAT CAN HELP COMPANIES MANAGE - AND AVOID - LEGAL CHALLENGES. Whatever the sector - oil and gas, electrical, renewable (an area of special expertise for us) – we meet our clients' critical needs for sound, strategic counsel.

Our energy clients include public utilities, financial institutions, private equity firms, power producers and generators and project developers. We deliver solutions with respect to regulation, rate increases, permitting, transactions of every nature, liability and when needed, litigation. Attorneys from our Green Practice Group are expert at devising innovative financial and structural solutions for wind, solar, biomass and other renewable energy types.

Drawing upon the diverse practice groups within our firm, we deliver comprehensive, cost-effective solutions to the most pressing issues facing companies in the ever-changing, high-stakes energy industry.
