

DECOTIIS, FITZPATRICK & COLE, LLP

MANUFACTURING

NEW JERSEY MANUFACTURERS PRODUCE ROUGHLY $40 BILLION WORTH OF GOODS ANNUALLY, AND EXPORT THEM TO CUSTOMERS AROUND THE UNITED STATES AND THE WORLD. DeCotiis attorneys have experience in both cutting-edge business agreements and structures and the oversight of the day-to-day legal issues that keep factories and plants running.

Areas of expertise include litigation and dispute resolution, intellectual property matters (including trade secrets) and negotiation and preparation of all kinds of agreements, from distribution contracts and joint-venture agreements to labor and employment issues. In addition, our Environmental Law Practice Group provides exceptional legal services with respect to claims, permitting and remediation, and our Labor and Employment attorneys are some of the most respected in the Northeast.

In an increasingly competitive, increasingly global manufacturing environment, it's more important than ever to have top-notch legal advice and counsel. DeCotiis can help.
