

STEVEN C. MANNION

ATTORNEY AT LAW

Steven Mannion is a partner in the Teaneck office of DeCotiis. He joined the firm in 2000, became a partner in 2001, and is a member of the Litigation and Labor and Employment practice groups.

Over the past 15 years, Mr. Mannion has represented private and public entities and their managerial personnel against complaints involving claims for wrongful discharge, discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. Mr. Mannion has also defended public entities and officials against tort and misconduct claims. His cases frequently involve interpretation of state and Federal civil rights laws and constitutional claims.

Mr. Mannion regularly appears in state and Federal courts, both at the trial and appellate levels, and he has substantial jury trial experience. He also has significant experience mediating and arbitrating civil disputes, as well as handling matters before administrative agencies. His counseling work includes providing employment and labor advice to management, designing appropriate workplace policies and training managers and other employees in anti-harassment policies.

In addition to his legal career, Mr. Mannion has had an extensive and varied military career, both in active duty and in the reserves. His service includes:

United States Coast Guard (Selected Reserves) 2004 - Present

New Jersey Naval Militia 2004 - Present

New Jersey State Guard 2000 - 2004
