ATTORNEY AT LAW

Representative Cases:

Rosenblum v. Borough of Closter, 285 N.J. Super. 230 (App. Div. 1995), certif. den., 146 N.J. 70 (1996)

Ms. Verrone has conducted seminars on housing-related legal issues, including New Jersey Anti-Eviction Act Seminars sponsored by the New Jersey Chapter of the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NJ NAHRO) (1995, 1996) and a One Strike You're Out Seminar (Federal Public Housing Anti-Drug Policy) sponsored by NJ NAHRO (1997).

Ms. Verrone received her B.A. from Ramapo College of New Jersey in 1984 and her J.D. cum laude from Seton Hall Law School in 1990, where she was Associate and Book Review Editor of the Seton Hall Law Review. In this capacity she published a survey, Administrative Law: Hearsay Need Not Be Supported by Competent Evidence in Exclusion Proceedings, Department of Law and Public Safety, Division of Gaming Enforcement vs. Merlino, 216 N.J. Super. 579 (App. Div. 1987), 18 Seton Hall Law Review 214 (1988). The survey discussed the fact that evidence of association with organized crime, presented at administrative hearing before Casino Control Commission, is sufficient to bar admittance to New Jersey's licensed casinos.

She was selected by the New Jersey Law Journal Editorial Department as a prominent leader among women and minority attorneys in the State of New Jersey and profiled in Women and Minorities in the Legal Profession, New Jersey Law Journal (Nov. 3, 2003).
