

FRANCIS J. BORIN

ATTORNEY AT LAW

Frank Borin is a partner in our Teaneck office and a member of the Government, Environmental and Green Practice Groups. Mr. Borin joined our firm in 1995 and became a partner in 2001. He currently serves as a member of our firm's Executive Committee.

Mr. Borin's practice crosses several disciplines and includes work in the areas of Public Utilities, Real Estate, Environmental Law and Government and Regulatory Affairs. He has represented developers of residential and mixed use development and redevelopment projects and has represented governmental clients in matters involving public-private partnerships and consolidation of services. On behalf of his clients, he has appeared before various State agencies, including the Department of Environmental Protection, the Department of Community Affairs, the Department of Banking and Insurance and the Department of Transportation.

Mr. Borin has also counseled some of the largest public water supply and wastewater treatment operations in the State of New Jersey. He is skilled in issues relating to public contracting, project financing and environmental permitting. As a result of his work in the area of potable water supply, Mr. Borin has developed a comprehensive knowledge of issues associated with both the drought management and water allocation processes. He has also assisted his clients with the acquisition of properties deemed critical to the protection and enhancement of the watershed.
